

LUKE SEBASTIAN SCALONE
34 Juniper St, Apt #1
Boston, MA 02119
scalone.l@husky.neu.edu | (815) 641-0379

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy in World History
Northeastern University

In Progress
Boston, MA

Bachelor of Arts in History, Cum Laude
Butler University
Cumulative GPA: 3.86

May 2016
Indianapolis, IN

Honors Thesis
“Pacific Horizons: The Transformation of European Perceptions of Paradise, 1880-1900”

Honors and Awards
Top 100 Outstanding Student; Bernice Cope Award for the Study of History; Phi Kappa Phi—National Honorary Society for Undergraduates; Phi Alpha Theta—National Honorary Society for History; Phi Sigma Iota—National Honorary Society for Languages; Dean’s List; Highest Departmental Honors

Associates of Arts, High Honors
Joliet Junior College
Cumulative GPA: 3.900

August 2014
Joliet, IL

PROFESSIONAL AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

French Tutor

January 2016 to May 2016

Butler University, Indianapolis, IN

- Analyzed oral and written communication of students to help them improve.
- Answered any questions that students had about the language.

Information Commons Assistant

July 2015 to December 2015

Butler University, Indianapolis, IN

- Familiarized students and faculty with educational technology including Wordpress, Moodle, iMovie, and Panopto.
- Assisted undergraduates with locating information and evaluating sources.

Butler Summer Institute

May 2015 to July 2015

Substantial Research Project: “Pacific Horizons: The Transformation of European Perceptions of Paradise, 1880-1900”

- Examined a wide range of primary sources and found that many Europeans saw the Pacific as an Edenic space.
- Delivered a fifteen-minute presentation to a variety of faculty members, students, and the outside community.

Immigrant Welcome Center

August 2014 to December 2014

Volunteer

- Introduced immigrants to “natural helpers,” who would aid them in finding English courses, medical assistance, and affordable housing.
- Assisted natural helpers with other clerical work and technological issues.

LANGUAGES

- English (native)
- French (proficient in reading and writing; competent in speech)
- German (limited proficiency in reading, writing, and speech)